

The edges of our Liquid Lava tiles should be protected to minimize any edge damage. Please see below options.

---

Installation as an insert within a secondary hard material:

Installing over an existing floor requires a transition strip:

Installing with carpet may require a protective edge:

